Awards Dinner Co-Chairs Champion Mental Health

Representatives Garnet F. Coleman (left) and Four Price, and their wives Angelique Coleman and Karen Price, are Honorary Co-chairs for the NAMI Texas Awards Dinner. In the 2017 legislative session, Rep. Price and Rep. Coleman collaborated on mental health parity reform, criminal justice issues, and peer services. Their works includes serving on the House Select Committee on Opioids & Substance Abuse which Rep. Price chairs. Both legislators have been recognized as a Top Ten

Angelique and Rep. Garnet F. Coleman
State Representative Garnet Coleman has earned a reputation as a diligent leader representing the Houston area since 1991. He has worked to increase services and decrease the stigma associated with mental illness. Representative Coleman remains active and involved in the Houston community, serving on the boards of the Mid-Town Redevelopment Authority, the National Mental Health Association, and the Ensemble Theater.

Karen and Rep. Four Price
State Representative Four Price, a fourth generation Texan from Amarillo, is serving in his fourth term in the Texas House of Representatives where he has the privilege of advocating for constituents residing in five Texas Panhandle counties. As the chair of the House Committee on Public Health, Rep. Price works to develop programs for the prevention and treatment of mental illness. Rep. Price received the NAMI Texas Charley H. Shannon Advocate Award in 2016.
