Road to Resilience: the 2019 NAMI Texas Annual Conference is less than two months away (November 8-9 in Houston)! We are so excited to learn, share, and celebrate with you. Please read on for exciting news and information about the conference - and register here!

But first, we would like to acknowledge that Houston (the host city of our conference) and areas in Southeast Texas were heavily impacted this week by Tropical Storm Imelda. The impact of this event will be felt for a long time. NAMI Texas would like to express our sympathy for anyone who may have experienced a loss related to Imelda. If you're wondering what you can do to help the victims of this event, please consider donating to these charities/funds:

American Red Cross — text REDCROSS to 90999 to contribute $10 to disaster relief.

Southeast Texas Food Bank — serving East Texas counties most affected by the storm.

Meet Your Keynotes!

*NAMI Texas would like to give a special thanks to NAMI Greater Houston, who were instrumental in securing these keynote speakers and who are phenomenal partners in general!

Conference Schedule At-A-Glance

The full Conference Program will be available in October. For now, we are excited to share the Conference Schedule At-A-Glance!

Volunteer for the Conference

We need conference volunteers to help make the event a success! If you’re attending the conference and want to pitch-in, please consider signing up for a volunteer shift or two.
